A Trip Of Memories

Summary:

Hemarith writes a letter to Harsha describing his experience in Horsley Hills. Hemanth felt happy when his father told him the news that they are going to Horsley hills. Even, he tells his mom and sister about it. He made all the preparations for it. They woke up early and got ready. By an auto, they all went to the Vijayawada Railway Station. After reaching Pakala Station by train, they hired a car to the Horsley Hills. The scene was very beautiful. There was cool breeze and roads on either side with trees. A cool and fresh breeze welcomed them to Andhra Ooty. The area was full of trees and flowers. Climate was cool. Soon after lunch, they visited Gali – Banda.

After that they moved to Eastern and Western view points. Then, they went to the Mini-Zoo and watched many birds and animals. Then, his father took him to Madanapalle. It was the place where Rabindranath Tagore translated our National Anthem to English. Mrs. Margaret cousins composed a tune for our Anthem. Janaganamana was first sung at a courtyard in Madanapalle. Visiting this place filled Hemanth and his family with lot of memories.
