Answer:
Once, there was a fisher man. He used to catch fish everyday and took the catch of fish on a bullock cart. A fox saw this. The fisherman was taing fish in a cart every day. He sold them and made money.

One day, the fisher man was coming with his catch of fish. On the way, he formed a fox lying in the middle of the road. The fisherman stopped the cart and came to the fox. The fox said, "Sir, I am unwell. I want to go some. Please take me along with you. "I will die".

The fisherman took pity on him. He made the fox sit on the back his cart and started driving the cart again. The fox took the fish one by one, dropped it to the ground. When the basket was empty, the fox jumped off the cart. When he reached home, the fisher man did not find the fish or the fox.
