Pledge

- Pydimarri Venkata Subba Rao

India is my country. All Indians are my brothers and sisters.

I love my country and I am proud of its rich and varied heritage.

I shall always strive to be worthy of it.

I shall give my parents, teachers and all elders respect, and treat everyone with courtesy. I shall be kind to animals.

To my country and my people, I pledge my devotion.

In their well-being and prosperity alone lies my happiness.

Three Butterflies

Three butterflies lived in a garden. They were friends. One of them was white, one red and the other yellow. They played and danced together. They flew together and sucked nectar from the flowers.

One afternoon, when the butterflies were playing in the garden, it suddenly grew dark and a cold wind blew. "It's going to rain. Let's stop playing." said the red butterfly. Suddenly it started raining and the three butterflies got wet in the rain. They found it difficult to fly. They looked for shelter. They saw a sunflower nearby. It was watching them curiously.

"Hello sunflower, it's raining heavily. Can we stay here till it stops raining?" asked the butterflies.

The sunflower said, "My favourite red and yellow ones! You can stay with me till it stops raining. But I can't let the white one in here."

The yellow and the red butterflies replied, "No dear, we won't stay here, sending away our friend in dismay." The rain came down like pebbles on the butterflies.
